Clearwater Casino Resort

Suquamish, WA

Welcome to the First International Salish Wool Weavers Symposium!

The Suquamish Tribe and the Suquamish Museum are proud to be a part of the restoration of many cultural activities traditional to the Coast Salish peoples. We are very excited to host you all here at dx<sup>w</sup>səq<sup>w</sup>əb - The Place of the Clear Salt Water.

Many hands have made this gathering possible. The Suquamish Museum staff are Janet Smoak, Barbara Lawrence-Piecuch, Lydia Sigo, Melita Ziass, Crystal Sigo, Jillian Mills; Joanna Sharphead and Kathy Pondelick have been working hard as the Registration and Payment Coordinators – your registration and payments would not have happened without them!

We could not have brought everyone together without the generous financial support of the Institute of Museum and Library Services, Port Madison Enterprises, The Bill Holm Center for the Study of Northwest Native Art, The Suquamish Foundation, KORSMO Construction, The Suquamish Tribe, Grounds for Change, Off The Rez Food Truck, and the Native Voices Indigenous Documentary Film Program.

We raise our hands to our host committee who provided insight, guidance and suggestions. Host committee members are Joey Holmes, Denita Santos, Angelina Sosa, Terry Johnson, April Leigh, Tina Jackson, Betty Pasco, Kate Ahvakana, and Peg Deam. Special thanks to Rosie Bayes and Brittany Bakken here at the Clearwater Resort and Conference Center, to April Leigh for our graphic design and layout assistance, to Danielle Morsette who suggested a Fashion Show, and to Joey Holmes, who voiced his daydream of a wool weaving symposium – a daydream that is now a reality.

We hope you have a wonderful time.

Symposium Coordinator

Janet Smoak
